

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments

1. Introduction, Michal Shamir and Gideon Rahat

Part I The Party System: Comparative Institutional Perspectives

2. The Decline of the Large Mainstream Parties, Ofer Kenig and Or Tuttnauer

3. Apples and Oranges: Putting Electoral Thresholds in Context , Raz A. Eizenberg and Liran Harsgor

Part II Political Parties and Voters

4. A Ruling Party versus a Party Aspiring to Leadership: Likud and Jewish Home in the 2015 Elections, Asher Cohen and Menachem Lazar

5. Joint but Excluded: The Joint List in the 2015 Elections, Daniel Zucker

6. Immigrants from the Former Soviet Union and Israeli Politics: at a Crossroads, Viacheslav Konstantinov and Reut Itzkovitch-Malka

7. Taken Captive by the Collective Identity Cleavage: Left and Right in the 2015 Elections, Michal Shamir, Shira Dvir-Gvirsman, and Raphael Ventura

Part III Political Communication

8. Political Personalization Online: Parties and Politicians in the 2015 Elections, Shahaf Zamir and Gideon Rahat

9. Attitudes toward Media, Perceived Media Influence, and Changes in Voting Intentions in the 2015 Elections, Yariv Tsfati

10. Surveys and Election Forecasts in a World of Social Media and Party Dealignment, Camil Fuchs